Hi Linda

Here are directions to my house.

Get off the bus across from the movie theater and walk down the street until you get to the traffic lights. Cross the street at the crosswalk and keep walking until you come to a roundabout. At the roundabout, take the first street on the right. Keep going for about one hundred meters until you get to the intersection. There's a bakery on the corner. Turn right there and go over the bridge. It's the second street on the left after the bridge.

See you at the party!
Greg
